Love Learn Hope

A Journey Together

Sponsored by the Ottawa Area Intermediate School District

The Ottawa Area Intermediate School District invites parents of children with unique and challenging needs to an uplifting workshop titled Love Learn Hope – A Journey Together. Spend a day meeting other parents of special needs children, learning practical information and discovering additional resources to make life with your children even better.

Keynote speaker and author of Receiving David, Faye Knol, will recount her experience parenting a son born in 1982 with multiple special needs.

She will offer a message to parents mixing the practical with the hopeful while never leaving out the most important ingredient – to love and accept your child for who they are regardless of their “abilities.”
